Self-Discovery Tapestry

Student Edition

Created to encourage greater student participation

- Custom made for students' use during class exercises and for their assigned follow-up interviews
- Individually packaged
- Students may purchase the Student Self-Discovery Tapestry kit at their bookstore or academic departments may order kits for students using departmental credit cards, purchase orders or check

Students may:

- Complete their personal life-review independently or as part of a class exercise.
- Come to class prepared to discuss adaptation, important transitional events, and assessments
- Utilize the second Tapestry form as the basis for instructor-assigned interviews
- Refer to the Client Guide for complete instructions and introspective questions
- Complete the Individual Summary sheet to synthesize awareness of adaptive patterns for themselves and their interview participants
- Study the Leader's Guide to obtain background on theory-based form, related case-studies, and strategies for conducting interviews
